

Sporting Kansas City

This partnership allows you to learn the different aspects within a professional sports team. You will learn from such departments as: Sales, Marketing, Community Relations, and Operations. You will view and work firsthand with the game day operations of home soccer matches. This partnership will demand standing, lifting, and moving of items. Also the hours may vary with this partnership and will include nights and weekends. There are some required dates involved.
Game Days and Other Special Events

Number of Participants:4-5 Students