

Stormont Vail

A household name in Topeka health care, Stormont-Vail has offered an opportunity for two students to learn about the administration and operational side of a hospital. You will have the opportunity to learn the things going on behind the scenes for a hospital to run successfully from patient care, billing, equipment purchasing, and etc.

This is a two-week opportunity starting June 13th.