

L. A. "Bud" Moore Memorial Scholarship

One $500 scholarship/renewable up to one year

LaRue A. "Bud" Moore was acknowledged by those who knew him as an honest man who lived life with the principles of integrity and fairness. After serving his country in the Coast Guard, he devoted nearly fifty years to the International Brotherhood of Teamsters, Chauffeurs, Warehousemen and Helpers enhancing the lives of working men and women. In his worklife as labor negotiator, working across the table from owners and managers of literally hundreds of companies, he demanded and established relationships with those three principles: honesty, integrity, and fairness.
